

Press release

Meeting with service providers

On 29th June, 2013 DEW organized a service provider meeting with different service providers of Mymensingh and women leaders of various women club at DEW Learning Centre, Mymensingh under its Let Her Decide and Participate (LHDP) project funded by Oxfam. Representatives of many service provider organizations such as BLAST, SARA, FPAB, Trinomul Unnoyon Shangshta were participated in the meeting. Teachers of four educational institutes named Muslim Girls' High School & College, Shaheed Sayod Nazrul Islam College, Gohailkandi high school and Muktagacha College were also present in this meeting. Women leaders of Boyra, Muslim Girls' High School & College, Shaheed Sayod Nazrul Islam College and Muktagacha College women club took participate in this meeting. Mr. A.K.M Rafique, principle of Shaheed Sayod Nazrul Islam College presided and Ms. Nasrin Ahmed, Project Facilitator of LHDP project conducted the meeting. Some important and emerge issues such as reproductive health, body right, Violence Against Women (VAW), Eve-Teasing were discussed on the meeting. Ad. Shibir Ahmed Liton and Ad. Amdadul haque Millat shared the law about VAW. Ms. Nishat who is the member of women club asked about eve-teasing on Mobile phone and in the class room. She and other young members wanted to know the way of protection and how they can avoid these types of sticky problem. Social activist Mr. Shadheen Chowdhury answered their questions. All participants also shared their experience about women rights. At the end of the meeting Mr. A.K.M Rafique gave special thanks for participate and informative meeting.

Meeting session with service provider and women leaders of different women club