

MAY 2014

NEWSLETTER

Session Duration: 29May-31May, 2014

All Field Facilitators, Coordinators, Mobilizers and members of DEW attend training session for deciding the best Alternative livelihood options (ALO) for Alleviating Poverty in North-East Bangladesh (APONE) for sustainable livelihood by Fair Trade. In this country, people were settled in small villages and life style of these people was based on agriculture. Subsequently, the agriculture sector, the most important of the economy had been transformed from a stagnant to a dynamic and developing sector.

WFTO NEWS-Asia conference & AGM in Seoul, October 2014

Training 1.1.1: Training session for deciding the best Alternative livelihood options

Our civilization is a combination of culture and customs from different ethnicity from different countries over thousands of years. DEW and its partner organization TRAI DCRAFT is assisting in the development of farmers and artisans by training program and welfare services ensuring sustainable livelihood for farmers group of this country.

Training 1.1.2: Ethnic women are learning methodology for sustainable livelihood.

Training 1.1.3: Participation of women in harvesting