Cultural program for awareness build up to protest Violence against Women

Since 1996 DEW had a dream to provide Sustainable livelihoods, Human Rights and fair trade program to the disadvantage and poor people of our society. Since that beginning, DEW has worked to grow and response to the needs of our community people's demand. From 2008 DEW working as a connecting organization in Mymensingh region to increase awareness building and to reduce domestic violence against women by We can campaign program. From this connection now DEW implementing Let Her Decide and participate (LHDP) project based on Women Transformative programme funded by Oxfam- GB. Now Dew family is working for women empowerment and disseminates women leadership within organization and root people.

To build up awareness against violence, DEW organized street drama on Violence against Women at Char Anondipur, Mymensingh on 2 September, 2013 under the Let Her Decide and Participate (LHDP) project of Women Transformative Leadership programme. That Drama was played by well-known Theater group of Mymensingh. The theme of the Drama was Violence against women in her family and society, punishment of violence, and impact on the society. It was so effective campaign and awareness program against violence for Char People. Mr. Moazzem Hossein Feroz, Union Parishad Member was chief guest of the cultural program. Members of women club and their family and so many local people of this char village were also present in the program. After played drama, Mr. Moazzem Hossian Firoz gave speech and made commitment to decrease the ratio of early marriage. Village people enjoyed very much. Nasrin Ahmed, Project facilitator of LHDP-DEW conduct the program and Women clubs of Char Anondipur and Char Vobanipur helped to organize the program.
