

Education Programme for Disadvantaged Children

DEW has been running a community school for underprivileged and dropped-out children providing them school-based non-formal education for three years (playgroup to class III) that eventually enables them to enroll in the mainstream primary education system.

DEW is also running a Day-care Center for the children of working mothers of the Saver areas.

